Jean Ikanga - Maternity Clinic in the Democratic Republic of the Congo

This weekend we are hosting an appeal to help fund the completion of a new maternity clinic in the Democratic Republic of the Congo in support of Fr. Jean Ikanga. Please pray that Fr. Jean will reach his goal. If you would like to help our brothers and sisters in the Congo, there are a couple of ways to make contributions:

1. By check to: Friends of the Congo, Inc. Checks can be placed in the collection basket next week, or mailed to 6223 Hough Rd, Almont, MI 48003.
2. Go to the Friends of the Congo website: (www.congowomensclinic.org) Note: there is also an option for making recurring monthly contributions as well.

If you have any questions regarding the Maternity Clinic in the Congo, please contact:

29th Annual Slovak Festival Planning

Attention Parishioners: It is that time of year when planning begins for the parish's 29th Annual Slovak Festival. The festival takes place on the church grounds August 23, 24, and 25. Mark your calendars!

The Slovak Festival Program Booklet Committee is now accepting ads in PDF format for the festival four-color booklet. Ads may be full-page, half-page, or quarter-page. Prices vary depending if one wishes to purchase a 4 foot x 6 foot banner with the booklet ad.

The Committee invites those parishioners with businesses to support an ad in the program booklet. Let's have some fun also by having families or individuals purchase ads and/or banners! Time to get creative — maybe an ad or banner from ministries within the parish? The Committee will help you consider all ideas or possibilities.

The Committee will also accept donations toward the costs to produce the program booklet. Just be sure to let the Committee know how you wish your name to be acknowledged in the booklet.

DEADLINE FOR PDFs is July 30!

If you have questions or want to place an ad:

Tom Starynchak, Committee Chair, (586) 489-8661, tstarynchak@gmail.com or

Frances Schena, (586) 381-1128, francesschena@att.net

ADORATION 101 • Easter and the Holy Eucharist

We do not usually associate Easter and the Holy Eucharist. But we should. Our faith tells us that God became man in order that, by His death on the Cross, He might redeem the world. But this same faith tells us that, when Christ died on Calvary, the Church came into existence. We may therefore say that we were delivered from sin by the Savior's death, and receive the blessings of His grace through the Mystical Body which came into being the moment Jesus expired on Good Friday.

But our Catholic Faith tells us even more. Saint Thomas Aquinas raised the question, "Whether Christ's Resurrection is the cause of the resurrection of our bodies?" He answers in the affirmative. His logic is that whatever is first in any order, is the cause of all that comes after it. Since Christ's Resurrection was first in the order of our resurrection, it must be the cause of our rising from the dead. To prove his point he quotes from Saint Paul, "Christ is risen from the dead, the first fruits; for by a man came death, and by a man the resurrection of the dead" (1 Corinthians 15:20-21).

St. Thomas goes on to explain that this is perfectly reasonable. Thus we read what Christ Himself says, "As the Father raises up the dead, and gives life; so the Son also gives life to whom He wills" (John 5:21). It is part of the divinely established natural order that every cause operates first on what is nearest, and through it upon others, which are more remote. For example, fire first heats the nearest air, and through it heats bodies that are further off. Consequently the Word of God first bestows immortal life upon that Body which is naturally united with Himself, and through it works the resurrection in all other bodies.

At the Last Supper, when Christ pronounced the words, "This is my Body", "this is the chalice of my Blood," the Body and Blood that were to be nailed to the Cross and shed on Calvary. As some of the Church's earliest commentators explain, on Easter Sunday night when Jesus sat down with the disciples at Emmaus, they recognized Him in the "breaking of bread," which was the Eucharist.

Since the Resurrection of Christ, the Holy Eucharist is indeed the true, living Body and Blood of Christ. But it is now the Risen Christ in His glorified humanity. What are we saying? We are affirming an article of the Catholic faith. Words cannot be clearer. Christ in the Eucharist is now the Risen Savior who is seated at the right hand of His heavenly Father and will come on the last day to judge the living and the dead.

With resounding emphasis the situation has not changed in our day. Jesus Christ is on earth in every tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved, and on every altar where the Holy Eucharist is exposed for the adoration of the faithful. But we must be faithful. We must be full of faith. The measure is our belief that Jesus Christ is now on earth in the Holy Eucharist. In the measure that we believe in His Real Presence, He will teach us the truth, and work miracles in our favor, even greater than the wonders He had performed during His visible stay in Asia Minor. – Paul A. Ray
