Catechism Update • Volunteer Opportunities for 2019/2020

Thank you to our retiring Catechists, Parking Lot & Security Volunteers for your dedication, faith, time and love that you shared with the children of our parish. You will be missed dearly, as we were blessed to have many of you with the program for twenty plus years.

As there are some pretty big shoes to fill, we pray, “And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have faith”, Matthew 21:22.

We are looking for volunteers who accept Jesus’ challenge to go forth and teach. Your talent may be working with our parish children in a classroom setting, greeting them and their families in the hallways, or securing the parking lot so no harm comes to any of them. EVERY position is IMPORTANT.

You may say, “I am just in my twenties and have no children, they don’t need someone like me.” Trust me, the students love your energy and enthusiasm. You may think, “I am too old, what do I have to offer?” I would answer, how about a kind ear, a unique skill set and years of experience.

High School Students, we would love for you to come and work as assistants in the classrooms. Many of you are exploring professions or vocations; this experience may help you discern what God wants for you.

I can attest to the joy that comes from working with the children. My husband and I have been a part of this program for 25 years. Our youngest is 24 now, so we could have easily chosen to move on but we see what joy comes from the fruits of our labor. There is immeasurable pride when a child who doubted they could do it, successfully finishes all the requirements and makes his or her Confirmation. Tears flow when a First Communicant walks back to their seat with a look on their face of reverence and recognition that they have just receive the Real Body and Blood of Jesus. The rewards outweigh the work, tenfold.

Please consider helping us to catechize the youth at our parish on Wednesday evenings from September through May. Volunteering has many benefits while giving good example to a new generation. It contributes to a longer life, combats stress, gives purpose and most importantly, “You will shine, not that others can see you, but so that through you, all children can see HIM.” (Credit to C.S. Lewis)

Please contact us if you are interested in discussing a position with the Catechism Program, Carroll and Paul Schuller, at p_schuller@yahoo.com or (586) 254-9212. Thank you.

Candy Bars for Father's Day • June 16

Father's Day is this weekend! This is such a wonderful holiday where we can really show the father or father figures in our lives how much they mean to us, as well as thank them for LIFE! Right to Life-LIFESPAN is hosting their annual Father's Day Candy Bar Project after Holy Masses this weekend. They have multiple different flavors, such as: almond, peanut butter, milk chocolate, dark chocolate, and caramel! Donations are appreciated! And in supporting LIFESPAN, you are directly helping them teach students about the sanctity of life, from Conception to Natural Death, as well as motivate the students and give them more opportunities to be active in the pro-life movement. So please be sure to support this wonderful organization by gifting your father or father figure with a delicious chocolate bar!

God bless you, and thank you for your help in defending LIFE!

Maria C. Vitale, L.I.F.E. Ministry of Ss. Cyril and Methodius

Father's Day Novena

Father's Day is Sunday, June 16, and our Father's Day Novena will begin this Monday, June 17. Novena Mass cards are available after all Holy Masses this weekend.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the greatest gift anyone can receive.

St. Monica Sodality Mass * Sunday, June 23

The next St. Monica Sodality Holy Mass takes place on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi - Sunday, June 23, at 1:30PM. May the Holy Eucharist bind us and those we pray for closer to Our Lord. Please join us for Mass and prayers.

Note - Prayer petitions placed in the St. Monica box from May 2018 to April 2019 have been forwarded to Rome.

Mobile App

We have launched a Church App to be used on mobile devices. You will be able to access things like daily readings for Mass, a digital Bible, weekly bulletins and our electronic giving page. As we continue to work to add to the app we hope to include access to event information, homilies and other recorded talks and more.

To download the app, you can either text "SSCyrilApp" to 77977 to receive a text with a link to the app or you can go to your Mobile App Store and download the "My Church by Pushpay" app and search for SSCyrilApp or you can select "Find my church by name" and search for SS Cyril.

Online Giving

To give using your mobile device simply text SSCYRIL to 77977 and a link to the giving page will be sent to you.

To give online you can simply go to our website www.saintcyrils.church and select "GIVE" on the homepage.

If you decide to use online giving and no longer need your envelopes, please send an email to business@saintcyrils.org requesting they be canceled.

Jar 1917 – jedna zlá správa za druhou

Uplynul už viac ako rok od kedy sa malá hŕstka Slovákov rozhodla postaviť si slovenský katolícky kostol, aby mohli počuť slovo Božie v ich materinskom jazyku. Hoci sa borili s mnohými problémami, za krátku dobu dosiahli dosť. Získali povolenie od biskupa na založenie komunity, zapísali veľa Slovákov a nazbierali, či požičali si peniaze na zakúpenie pozemku pre kostol. A splnila sa im aj ich najväčšia túžba, keď získali slovenského kňaza. Táto nádejná situácia však bola narušená prvými mrakmi na obzore. Medzi ľuďmi sa vyskytli nedorozumenia i podozrievanie zo sprenevery peňazí, čo viedlo k rezignácií niektorých členov zodpovedných za zbieranie finančných prostriedkov. Jedným z príkladov svárov je i debata o pláci za hranie počas krížovej cesty. Organista Tomáš J. Grigliak nebol spokojný s ponúknutou sumou 50 centov a svoju nevlhu vyjadril slovami, “že on za tie peniaze ani nohu z havzu nevytiahne”. Konečný kompromis bol 1.00 dolár.

Začiatkom marca po nedeľnej omši (v prenajatých priestoroch Poľského kostola) sa Slováci museli popasovať s novou výzvou. Všetky kontrakty a zmluvy o zakúpených pozemkoch bolo treba odovzdať diecéze. Pochopiteľne, zo strany ľudí sa táto požiadavka stretla so silnou nevlou a viacerí vyjadrovali nespokojnosť a obavy, že im biskup tento pozemok odoberie. Netreba sa čudovať ich zmýšľaniu: Pozemok na kostol nadobudnutý za cenu veľkých osobných obetí chápali ako svoje vlastníctvo a neuvedomovali si, že (vtedy, tak ako aj dnes) diecéza je legálnym vlastníkom pozemkov a majetku všetkých farností. Hoci sa naň poskladajú veriaci a majetok je spravidla v správe danej farnosti, legálnym vlastníkom je vždy diecéza. Obavy Slovákov sa snažili rozptýliť (viac či menej úspešne) i Rev. Janeček (český kňaz) a Rev. Gdzela (poľský kňaz), ktorí poukazovali na fakt, že všetky farnosti a katolícke kostoly sú v rovnakej situácii.

Daná situácia neuspokojila viacerých členov zodpovedných za financie, ktorí sa snád i v dôsledku osobných sporov vzdali funkcie. Väčším problémom však bola všeobecná nespokojnosť, nedôvera a oslabenie zaangažovanosti. Viacerí jednotlivci, ktorí požičali peniaze do spoločného fondu požiadali o ich vrátenie a to isté spravil i 36. Zbor katolíckych sokolov. Našli sa však aj obetaví ľudia, ktorí veľkodušne ponúkli ďalšie peniaze ako náhradu za tie, ktoré museli byť vrátené.

Okrem problémov s financiami mohla byť plánovaná výstavba kostola ohrozená i novým poľským kostolom, ktorý sa údajne mal začať stavať v tej istej lokalite. Z hľadiska daných národnostných skupín existencia viacerých kostolov v prílišnej blízkosti nepredstavovala problém. Pravdou však je, že z pohľadu diecézy by to bolo nie najlepšie strategické rozhodnutie, ktorému sa aj v iných prípadoch radšej vyhýbali.

Popri týchto nie malých problémoch sa Slováci museli dozvedieť ďalšiu zlú správu. Reverend Bendick narýchlo zvolal všetkých členov výboru a oznámil im, že na základe nariadenia biskupa nesmie viac slúžiť Slovákom a musí okamžite odísť k svojmu biskupovi (stále nevieme, odkiaľ vlastne prišiel). Pre Slovákov to bola trpká rana: V Rev. Bendickovi videli obetavého kňaza, ktorý pracoval pre ich novú komunitu a veľmi sa ich dotklo, že by mal odísť práve pred Veľkou nocou. Preto sa rozhodli poslať delegáciu za biskupom so snahou dosiahnuť zmenu daného rozhodnutia, alebo aspoň lepšie pochopiť situáciu. Ako to všetko dopadlo sa dozvieme v budúcom čísle bulletinu.

Spring, 1917 - Bad News

More than one year had passed since the first group of Slovaks decided to build a church where they could hear the Word of God in their mother tongue. Despite many challenges, during this first year they had obtained permission from the bishop to start a community, registered many Slovaks, as well as having collected funds for the purchase of property for the new church. And their biggest dream had come true in the person of Rev. Bendick, a Slovak priest. However, some initial disturbances began to appear as well. Personal conflicts, a lack of trust and suspicion led to the resignation of some members who had been responsible for collecting funds. An example of this situation was provided in notes regarding a debate about the wage paid for playing the organ during the Stations of the Cross. Organist Tomas J. Grigliak was not happy with the proposed 50 cents and he expressed his discontent with the words, “I won’t even step out of my house for this amount of money”. The final compromise was one dollar (approximately $22 today).

In the beginning of March, 1917, after a Sunday Mass (in rented space at the Polish church), the Slovaks faced a new challenge. All contracts regarding the purchased property were to be submitted to the diocese. Obviously, this requirement met little or no approval among the people and many expressed their discontent and concern that the bishop would take away their property. Their thinking is understandable: they considered the property for their Church, obtained through many sacrifices, as their personal property and they failed to understand that – as is true today – the diocese is the legal owner of all Church parish properties. Although many people contribute towards these properties, and they are normally administered by the parish, the diocese remains the legal owner. Even Rev. Janecek, the Czech priest, and Rev. Gdzela, the Polish priest, tried to explain the situation to the Slovaks and pointed out that all other parishes are in the same situation.

Several members responsible for the group’s finances became dissatisfied and resigned their positions. The more serious result was a general lack of confidence and decreased involvement in the project. Several individuals even requested a refund of their contributions toward the building fund.

While they were dealing with these financial problems, the construction of the church was also potentially jeopardized by the supposed construction of a new Polish church in the same neighborhood. From the perspective of these ethnic groups, the existence of several churches in close proximity to one another did not pose a problem. The truth is, however, that the diocese regularly avoided this kind of strategically imprudent decision.

Aside from these problems, the Slovaks received more bad news. Reverend Bendick suddenly summoned all of the group’s representatives and shared with them the decision of the bishop: that he must leave Detroit at once. This was a bitter pill to swallow: The Slovaks regarded Rev. Bendick as a fervent priest who worked for their new community and they were also hurt because the timing of the decision was just before Easter. They decided to send representatives to the bishop, hoping to reverse the decision, or at least to better understand his decision.
