PERPETUAL HELP DEVOTIONS

MONDAYS AT 8:40AM - BEGINNING January 6, 2020

The image of Our Lady of Perpetual Help is a beautiful icon, painted on wood, and seems to have originated around the thirteenth century. Traditionally, the image is also known as “Our Lady of Perpetual Succour.” The icon (about 54 x 41.5 centimeters) depicts our Blessed Mother Mary, under the title “Mother of God,” holding the Child Jesus. The Archangels Michael and Gabriel, hovering in the upper corners, hold the instruments of the Passion— St. Michael (in the left corner) holds the spear, the wine-soaked sponge, and the crown of thorns, and St. Gabriel (in the right corner) holds the cross and the nails. The intent of the artist was to portray the Child Jesus contemplating the vision of His future Passion. The anguish He feels is shown by the loss of one of His sandals. Nevertheless, the icon also conveys the triumph of Christ over sin and death, symbolized by the golden background (a sign of the glory of the resurrection) and the manner in which the angels hold the instruments, i.e. like trophies gathered up from Calvary on Easter morning.

In a very beautiful way, the Child Jesus grasps the hand of the Blessed Mother. He seeks comfort from His mother, as He sees the instruments of His passion. The position of Mary’s hands – both holding the Child

Jesus (who seems like a small adult) and presenting Him to us– convey the reality of our Lord’s incarnation, that He is true God who became also true man. In iconography, Mary here is represented as the Hodighitria, the one who guides us to the Redeemer. She also is our Help, who intercedes on our behalf with her Son. The star painted on Mary’s veil, centered on her forehead, highlights her role in the plan of salvation as both the Mother of God and our Mother.

According to popular tradition, a merchant acquired the icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help from the island of Crete and had it shipped to Rome towards the end of the fifteenth century. During the voyage, a terrible storm arose, threatening the lives of all on ship. The passengers and crew prayed to our Blessed Mother, and were saved.

Once in Rome, the merchant, dying, ordered that the image should be displayed for public veneration. His friend, who retained the image, received further instructions: in a dream to his little daughter, the Blessed Mother appeared and expressed the desire for the image to be venerated in a Church between the Basilicas of St. Mary Major and St. John Lateran in Rome. The image, consequently, was housed at the Church of St. Matthew, and became known as “The Madonna of Saint Matthew.” Pilgrims flocked to the church for the next three hundred years, and great graces were bestowed upon the faithful. After Napoleon’s troops destroyed the Church of St. Matthew in 1812, the image was transferred to the Church of St. Mary in Posterula, and remained there for nearly forty years. There, the image was neglected and forgotten.

By divine providence, the forgotten image was rediscovered. In 1866, Blessed Pope Pius IX entrusted the image to the Redemptorists, who had just built the Church of St. Alphonsus, down the street from St. Mary Major. As a boy, the Holy Father had prayed before the image in the Church of St. Matthew. He ordered the public display and veneration of the image, and fixed the feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Help as the Sunday before the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. In 1867, when the image was being carried in a solemn procession through the streets, a young child was cured, the first of many recorded miracles attributed to Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Recite/pray the Perpetual Help Devotions every Monday beginning at 8:40AM in the church, prior to the 9:00AM Holy Mass.

GENESIS Bible Study • January 21

Commentary by Steve Ray - presented by Fr. Matthew Kauth

Without Genesis, the rest of the Bible is incomprehensible. Unveiling no less than the creation of the world and everything in it, including human life, as well as the birth of sin and the promise of a Savior, Genesis is packed with fascinating images and layered theological insights that require careful study.

In this powerful 28-session study, author Steve Ray and presenter Fr. Kauth will help you uncover what you need to know about this crucial first book of the Bible, including:

- The theological significance of covenants: what they meant for the ancient Jews, and what they mean for us today
- What the Binding of Isaac actually signifies, and what Noah's ark represents
- How to have a personal relationship with the “God of your fathers” (Exodus 3:15)

Genesis is the first key to unlocking the chest that enables us to understand the Bible as the Universal Church always has. To find the priceless gems inside, we need a good roadmap to learn how the 50 chapters fit together and fit with the rest of the entire Bible. Let Steve Ray and Fr. Kauth guide you on a 1,500+ verse deep-dive into the richly puzzling spiritual depths of Genesis.

If you are interested, please join us on Tuesday mornings, beginning January 21, 2020 at 10:00AM in the Overflow Room. It is a 28-week program that will break sometime in the late spring and begin again in the fall.

To register, please call Marge, (586) 731-1533, and leave a message or email mtlewl3@yahoo.com so I know how many study guides I need to order. The cost for the study guide is $47.

Midwest Apologetics Conference VII (MACVII) • February 22, 2020
Mr. Trevor Pollo, Director of Training for Protect Life of Michigan

Matt 2:12 "And being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed to their own country by another way."

Happy Feast of the Epiphany my friends!

Do you know the real reason why the three kings went home another way? Well, according to St. Augustine, it's because no one can meet the risen Lord and go back to their old ways!

John Kowalski here again, with a suggestion for you regarding the seventh annual Midwest Apologetics Conference (MAC) to be held at Ss Cyril & Methodious Parish on Saturday, February 22. Do you know a young person who is undecided on the pro-life issue? Bring them to the MAC VII conference and after listening to our second speaker from Protect Life Michigan, I guarantee they won't go back to their old ways either.

St Augustine may not have coined the slogan, "the future belongs to the youth" but it's still a pretty good slogan and Protect Life Michigan is a group of young, dynamic individuals with another good slogan: "to form a generation of pro-life leaders dedicated to ending abortion in their lifetime".

I'm writhing because I wanted to take a bit of space in your bulletin this week to introduce to you our second speaker - Mr. Trevor Pollo. Trevor is the Director of Training for Protect Life Michigan (formerly known as Students for Life of Michigan) and has made over 100 college campus visits, bringing the pro-life message to both friendly and hostile crowds. He leads a statewide "Stump the Pro-Lifer" tour where he intentionally engages pro-choice advocates in constructive dialogue and defends the pro-life worldview in a passionate, reasoned, and scientific manner.

In addition, he has trained thousands of students and pro-life leaders in apologetics and leadership. His focus is on offering a passionate, logical, and irrefutable defense against the injustice of abortion.

Trevor's presentation will encourage and equip you to defend life.

About Protect Life Michigan

Begun in 2005, pro-life student groups across Michigan gathered together on Michigan State University's campus to establish "Students for Life of Michigan" (later Protect Life Michigan). These students formed a coalition of pro-life student groups to work together to protect life on college campuses across the state.

In 2013, they hired their first staff member and from there, the ministry skyrocketed as the need for a greater presence on campus' became clear. Today, they have a team of trained professionals that mentor students into pro-life leaders, sponsor statewide events to equip young leaders in the pro-life strategies, and work to build an army of alumni serving the pro-life cause. They serve over 50 high school and college campuses with trainings, resources, retreats, activism opportunities, and much more all at no cost to the students.

I urge you to make the time on Saturday February 22, 2020 to meet and hear this dynamic young man and help him to meet his goal of ending abortion in his lifetime (if not sooner!)

Holy Mass starts at 9:00AM followed by the conference. For more information, email midwestapologetics@hotmail.com.
