Thank you to everyone who has already contributed to CSA. Thanks to your generosity we are at $29,240 or 24% of our $124,037 goal already being pledged. Your CSA contributions are greatly appreciated since CSA contributions are the most beneficial way to donate to the Parish. If we do not meet our goal, we have to pay the difference with donations that have already been assessed the 7% Archdiocesan tax. All contributions to CSA are not assessed the 7% and also are not counted when our CSA goal is determined for the following years. All other donations to the parish are not only assessed the 7%, but are also taken into account when determining our future CSA goals.

If you have not contributed to CSA yet, but would like to you can return the pledge card that was mailed by the Archdiocese to all registered parishioners, use one of the blank pledge cards found in the vestibule by the bulletin board, go to givecsa.org and select our parish or call (888) 331-8695. If you are not comfortable with those methods you can also use your green envelope that came in the last packet of envelopes or just write a check to "Archdiocese of Detroit - CSA" and drop it in the collection basket. Thank you again for your generosity!

Peter's Pence Collection • June 25 & 26

The Peter's Pence Collection has a long tradition as a sign that Catholics around the world are joined in support of the Holy Father. A Concrete Sign of Mercy The year 2020 united the whole world in suffering as the COVID-19 pandemic took millions of lives and created widespread economic hardship due to the closure of nonessential businesses. In Lebanon, the hardship of the pandemic was compounded by a catastrophic explosion of a warehouse at the port in Beirut on August 4, 2020. The blast killed more than 200 people and injured and displaced thousands more. With funds collected through the Peter's Pence Collection, the Holy Father provided an immediate response of €250,000 to the Church in Lebanon, which made medical care, temporary shelter, and other basic needs available to victims through the efforts of Caritas Lebanon, Caritas Internationalis, and sister organizations of Caritas. Donations to the Peter's Pence Collection support not only the activities of the Roman Curia that assist the pope in the exercise of his ministry but also solidarity projects that help those most in need, such as emergency relief to the people of Lebanon. For more information on Peter's Pence, please visit the Vatican's Peter's Pence website: www.obolodisani Pietro.va/en.html.

Envelopes for this collection which will be taken June 25 & 26 are available on the table in the vestibule.

Baby Bottle Collection • June 25 & 26

The Knights of Columbus will collect your filled baby bottles next weekend, June 25 & 26. Please continue to fill your bottles in the meantime. We thank you in advance for your support of this vital project which will support Mary's Mantle, a Catholic residential program for homeless expectant women. They witness the love of Christ by promoting the dignity of life. Mary's Mantle provides a safe, faith-based and caring environment that supports the transition into motherhood, including extended aftercare for continued personal growth and integration into the community. Thank you for your generous donations and care for these mothers and babies!

Total Consecration to Jesus thru Mary • August 15

33-Day Preparation Begins: Wednesday, July 13

Consecration Date:

August 15, Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

St. Louis de Montfort (1673 – 1716) had a profound and deep devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and wrote extensively on the virtues of Our Lady, what true devotion to her consists of, and how the faithful need to turn to her as the way to her Son, Jesus Christ. He recommends that the faithful formally consecrate themselves to the Blessed Mother. For this end he developed a specific 33-day program consisting of various prayers and readings to help the faithful detach themselves from the world and bond themselves more closely with Christ through the example and intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary. St. Louis de Montfort stands in a long tradition of saints completely devoted to Our Lady, and his work has been influential in the lives of many other saints, one of the most famous among them is Pope St. John Paul II, who took his papal motto, "Totus Tuus" (Totally Yours) from de Montfort.

This "Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary" consists of an initial 12-day preparation followed by a period of three consecutive weeks, each week focusing on a different theme. It is recommended that the consecration be done on a major feast day of Our Lady, meaning that the preparation would begin 33 days prior. That is, after the 33-day program is completed, the formal Act of Consecration is made on a Marian feast day.

Once you make the consecration, it is for life. It can then be renewed annually. Keep in mind that this is a formal consecration to Our Lady, like a vow. Through this 33-day program you are giving Mary ALL of yourself - your heart, your mind, and your soul - in order to bring you closer and help you be more faithful to her Son, Jesus Christ. Also, that she may use you as a holy instrument in her battle with Satan - i.e. this consecration allows her the free reign in your life to make you holy (as she assists you, through the Holy Spirit, to conform to her virtues) and to use your prayers, sacrifices, and sufferings for the greater glory of God.

The next preparation begins on Wednesday, July 13, for all who wish to make, or renew, their Consecration on Saturday, August 15, the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

"Preparation for Total Consecration" books are available in the parish office for $10.

For questions about making your Total Consecration, or to register to make (or renew) your Total Consecration, contact the Parish Office: (586) 726-6911

Archbishop's Letter to the Faithful Year of Prayer for Priestly Vocations (Cont'd. from last week)

Forming Men of the Hearts: A Pastoral Note on a Year of Prayer for Priestly Vocations by The Most Rev. Allen H. Vigneron

(Continuation from last week's bulletin) ...

June 1, 2022

Why a Year of Prayer for Priestly Vocations?

Jesus Christ built his Church upon the foundation of holy priests. "And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it" (Mt. 16:18). In order that successive generations would be no poorer than those who saw the Lord and heard him in Galilee and Jerusalem, he called disciples to himself and taught them to act, teach, and love in his name. These first disciples, his Apostles, were entrusted with the mission to "make disciples of all nations." But this was a task too great for them to accomplish on their own, so he "breathed on them the Holy Spirit" thus what they taught would not be by their own authority but in Jesus' name.

Those Apostles in turn entrusted the gift of the Holy Spirit to act in Christ's power to successive men who served as bishops and priests. And so this bestowal of the Holy Spirit continues down to our day by the ordination of priests, who are truly called to act "in persona Christi," that is "in the person of Christ." It is by this power that when a priest says "your sins are forgiven" we are reconciled with God; when he says at Mass "this is my body...this is my blood" what looks and tastes like bread and wine are truly the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ. Because God has entrusted this awesome power in "earthen vessels" of priests, you and I have no less access to Jesus Christ than Mary Magdalen, Simon Peter, or Lazarus. What an awesome gift the priesthood is, not just for the man who is ordained, but for the whole Church and truly for the whole world! And because this gift is in such short supply, we must ask for more men to say "yes" to their vocation.

In recent years, we have heard so often about a shortage of priestly vocations that it is easy to lose a sense of urgency. Many parishioners have not felt the effect of this shortage, thanks to the heroic effort of pastors who give of themselves generously out of love. Many priests forego vacations, do not take a day off, and stretch themselves and their schedules to celebrate numerous Masses each weekend, while also hearing Confessions and being pulled in many other directions. In a great number of cases, pastors delay their retirements because they understand the need and truly love being priests and ministering to the flock entrusted to their care. While I am thankful for the tremendous effort and sacrifice my brother priests are willing to make, this type of ministry is unsustainable and unhealthy in the long run. A priest overextending himself can quickly experience burnout, sickness, and a strained relationship with God and his people. A balance in his life and ministry is important if a priest is to effectively serve you and our mission to unleash the Gospel in southeast Michigan.

In the simplest of terms, there are more priests retiring than priests being ordained each year, and this situation is aggravated by unforeseen events like sickness and death. This year, there were no men ordained to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Detroit, a first in generations. If we stay this course, we project that in ten years there will be approximately half the number of priests serving in the Archdiocese than there are today. That is half the number of priests to say Mass, hear Confessions, Anoint the Sick, and do the many other things that are necessary for the life of our Church. We are at a critical point here in the Archdiocese of Detroit and there is no quick fix. The time to form a man for the priesthood is seven to eight years in the seminary; if we do not act immediately, we will have significantly fewer priests than we have parishes, and the health of our parishes communities and our spiritual lives will be substantially affected. We must retain our sense of urgency as we pray fervently this year and beyond for an increase in priestly vocations in the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Nonetheless, this letter is not an invitation for us to stew in anxiety, but rather is a call to embrace our challenge with faith and act decisively to remedy the problem by our prayers and deeds. Our move to Families of Parishes is one of the primary ways we are securing the future of the Church and her mission. We know that in Christ, we have already won – yet, as we trust in the goodness of the Lord, we must continue to do our part by calling forth a new generation of priests.

To my brother priests:

My brothers, do not underestimate the profound impact you have on young men who have a vocation to the priesthood. Your example of devotion, holy life, fervent prayers, and genuine invitation will inspire many to serve "in the person of Christ." The 2022 report by the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate (CARA) at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. states that 71 percent of this year's diocesan ordination class were asked to consider the priesthood by their parish priest. We need to invest time to invite men into the brotherhood we share in Christ. With a generation so desperately wanting to belong, what better response than to bring them into our ranks to which God has called them. I urge you not to see this as one more thing placed upon your busy schedule, but rather something of crucial importance that will bring life to you, the man discerning, and the Church at large. Who is going to respond if we do not invite them to hear God's call?

To parishes, schools and religious education programs:

Pray fervently that men will have the courage to say "yes" to their call. I thank you for your full and active participation as you pray our prayer for priestly vocations at every weekend Mass, partake in Holy Hours, fast, and pray the Rosary together. Yet, we can do more than pray. Please remember that a vocation to the priesthood is carried and supported by the community one comes from. As a man is called forth by God, God uses your voices to invite these men who worship and pray with you. Now is the time to be bold in encouraging men you see in church. Often, a man entering seminary has been asked by many people from his community if he has ever considered the priesthood. These are little, but important, confirmations that encourage him to take the next step.

Our Catholic schools and religious education programs help to form our children to love God and consider what sort of life God is calling them to live for his glory. Do not hesitate to talk about vocations in class and develop unique ways to help children discover their vocations in the various activities and assignments they are given. You may even consider having a theme during the next academic year that specifically highlights vocations, especially the priesthood.

This is the second segment of a Pastoral Note published to the faithful in Detroit by The Most Reverend Allen H. Vigneron, Archbishop of Detroit. To read the complete letter, and to learn how to support this Prayer initiative, visit: www.aodonline.org.

Pastoral Note will be concluded in next week's bulletin ...
