Do you Like to Sing? Choir Practice Begins Wednesday, September 10

Our parish is abundantly blessed with musical talent. Please consider this personal invitation to YOU. Please consider joining the choir at Ss. Cyril & Methodius this fall. I know there are many talented singers in our parish and we need your help! Our schola is looking for men and women 18 and over, young and experienced voices are equally welcome and needed! Yes, I did say we were looking for MEN as well as women :)

Our adult choir sings at 9:30AM on Sundays at Holy Mass, as well as for special liturgies throughout the year. We rehearse during the week immediately following Catechism on Wednesdays (we meet in the Church about 7:30PM), with warm up and call time at 9:00AM Sunday immediately before Mass. Please do not let scheduling for evening rehearsals be a barrier to participation, and talk to me if you have any questions.

The Children's Choir sings at the 9:30AM Mass on the second Sunday of the month, and rehearses following the 9:30AM Mass on Sundays. I am still looking for one or two additional volunteers to coordinate this group. Many thanks to those who have already stepped forward.

Rehearsals begin for the 9:30AM Choir Wednesday, September 10, and on Sunday, October 5, for the Children's Choir, so now is the perfect time to prayerfully decide if this ministry might be a good fit for you! We also have opportunities for individuals to volunteer to assist with maintaining our music libraries. Adult music ministry volunteers will be required to complete a background check and VIRTUS Safe Environments training.

Thank you for all you do to make music at Ss. Cyrils beautiful.

If you are interested in joining us or if you have any questions:

Joe Long, Choir Director, (512) 878-3665

"God Revealed"

AVAILABLE NEXT WEEKEND

Next weekend, please help yourself to a book in the vestibule titled "God Revealed". The purpose of these books are to help invigorate faith and, hopefully, bring back those who no longer go to church or are struggling with their faith. In that spirit, a possible idea would be to put the book on your coffee table in hopes of a visitor in need, guided by God, could pick up and read a short story meant for them. Also, in the spirit of those who sow bountifully, reap bountifully there are extra copies if you wish to give a copy to a loved one who you think would benefit, so please help yourselves.

Despite my poor ability putting together this book and proofreading, I believe God's hand is upon this book, from the picture on the cover to the persistence He prodded me with to continue putting the book together. I humbly hope, that the fruit that God desires ... despite my interference, will still be. Praise be to Jesus Christ! Anonymous

Eucharistic Adoration • Heart's Deepest Longing

We have covered the beautiful Sacrament of Reconciliation and how much we need it and why God gave it to us. However, as we still walk this earth we will still struggle with our fallen human nature time and again until the day we die. What do we make of this? Humans have a nature which is more inclined to sin. It is of no fault of our own, but it's a nature that's malleable through God's grace. People will tend to beat themselves up over sins committed after confession and this shouldn't be the case. We should first realize that we're imperfect to begin with and when we fall into sin it shouldn't come as a surprise to us. Our first thought and action must be an immediate act of repentance and reparation on our own part no matter where or when it takes place. Once available, we then receive absolution in the confessional. Never should our recognition of our vulnerability toward sin lead us to license to sin. But, rather, a motivator to do better the next time we're up against dire circumstances. The only reason God permits us to continue sinning is that through it we can grow and learn. The evil spirit only tempts us if he sees us as a threat. If we were already under his dominion, he wouldn't need to attack us. So if you're being tempted and assaulted by his schemes realize that you're doing something right. God promised to always give us a way out and tells us that His grace is sufficient. When you're before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, tell Him all about your struggles with sin and ask for the grace to overcome them. God will always give us the grace to say "NO!" to sin, but we need the desire to work in cooperation with it for it to be efficacious. - Paul A. Ray

Can You Spend One Hour with Our Lord?

At Gethsemane, Jesus said to the apostles, "Couldn't you watch with me even one hour? Keep watch and pray so that you will not give into temptation. For the spirit is willing but the body is weak." (Matt 26:40-42) Our Lord is calling you to stay with Him for one hour.

COMMITTED ADORERS NEEDED

If you are able to commit to spend one hour with Our Lord each week, please contact: Annette, (586) 247-7214

September 13th—Fifth Apparition of Our Lady of Fatima

Saturday, September 13—Marian Procession & Devotions after the 9:00AM Holy Mass

During World War I, Pope Benedict XV made repeated but forlorn pleas for peace, and finally in May 1917, made a direct appeal to the Blessed Mother to intercede for peace in the world. Soon, Our Lady began to appear at Fatima, Portugal to three shepherd children, Lucia dos Santos, age 10, and her cousins, Francisco and Jacinta Marto, ages 9 and 7.

Fatima was a small village about 70 miles north of Lisbon.

September 13, 1917

On September 13, very large crowds began to converge on Fatima from all directions. Around noon the children arrived. After the customary flash of light they saw Mary on the holm oak tree. She spoke to Lucia: "Continue to pray the Rosary in order to obtain the end of the war. In October Our Lord will come, as well as Our Lady of Dolours and Our Lady of Carmel. Saint Joseph will appear with the Child Jesus to bless the world. God is pleased with your sacrifices. He does not want you to sleep with the rope on, but only to wear it during the daytime."

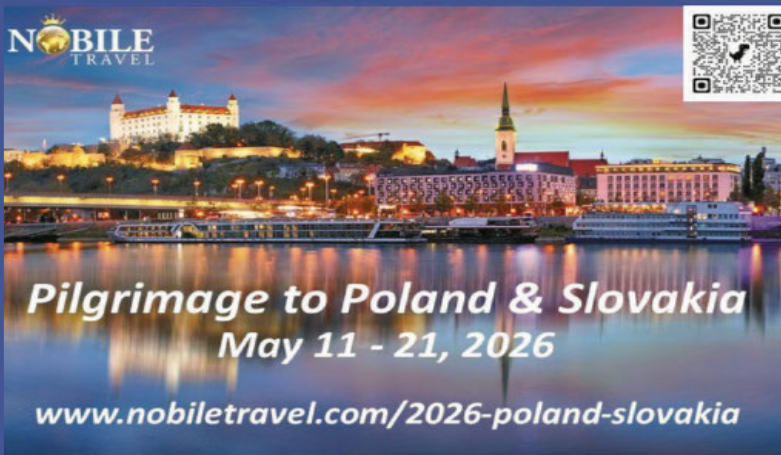

Lucia then began to put forward the petitions for cures, to be told: "Yes, I will cure some, but not others. In October I will perform a miracle so that all may believe." Then Our Lady began to rise as usual and disappeared.

On the 13th of each month, from May thru October, join in a very special Holy Mass and procession in honor of the apparitions of Our Blessed Mother to three Shepherd Children in 1917 in Fatima, Portugal.

The Rosary is prayed before Mass. Confessions are heard beginning one half hour before Holy Mass if it is on a weekday. Each Holy Mass concludes with a procession with the statue of Our Lady of Fatima from the Church to the outdoor Grotto, chanting Marian Hymns and Prayers to Our Lady of Fatima. Please join in this special day to honor Our Blessed Mother! The Mass will take place this Saturday, September 13, at 9:00AM with the Marian Procession afterward.
