Eucharistic Adoration • Heart's Deepest Longing

Once we have made a specific punishment for ourselves for having failed to cooperate with God's grace, we can help our resolve by doing the next best thing: finding someone we can entrust ourselves to. Call it a Spiritual Director if you will, but an individual who leads an upright life and is full of wisdom and experience. Clergy is preferred but a lay faithful friend can also work. Why a spiritual director? It is because no one, left to themselves, can walk in safety within the spiritual/interior life by themselves. For often-times, they will be exposed to the dangers of going astray, of losing heart, falling into the snares of the enemy of our soul, and perhaps even perish while trying. Even the Apostles and the saints had them. St. Paul, for instance, even though he was God's mouthpiece to the Gentiles, was instructed by Ananias (Acts 9). St. Teresa of Avila had St. John of the Cross, and St. Jane Frances de Chantal had St. Francis de Sales, etc. We must pray, therefore, that God may find us such a person who exercises skill and experience in spiritual matters and a practical knowledge of the interior life; someone who we can entrust our hearts to and at certain times give an account to in order to guide us to advance in our relationship with our Lord. Someone who we will humbly listen to who may need to correct us and offer advice on which direction to take and how to accomplish it. In our day in age it's very difficult to find someone who fits this criteria, but with God all things are possible, just keep persistent in prayer. (Mt. 19:26) - Paul Ray

Highlights from St. Mark's Bible Study

This week we covered Mark chapters 11-13. The way of Christ leads to Jerusalem and the Temple at the start of his last week before his Passion. Many symbolisms were explained. A few examples: Palm branches were a sign of victory used to greet Judas Maccabeus; robes being thrown on the ground acknowledging the kingship of Jesus and their submission to Him; the donkey also a sign of kingship as seen when Solomon entered on a donkey; the fig tree represents Israel; the vineyard represents the Temple; and lastly paying taxes to Caesar using his coin shows that the Roman coin has the image of Caesar which also has on it the words, "son of God" as idolatrous, Jesus teaches that we are made in the image of God and therefore our hearts belong to God.

RESPECT LIFE
MONTH 1 - I'M TINY

During the first amazing month of life, the baby grows to 10,000 times his size at Conception. He is totally dependent upon his mother. Between mother and child lies the vital organ called the placenta. Here vessels from mother and baby intertwine without joining, highlighting this newly formed relationship — mutual nourishing and deeply connected. By the third week, the baby's tiny heart begins to beat!

You can follow your baby's growth and development each month by checking the "WATCH ME GROW" posters in the vestibule and in the bulletin. If you were unable to spiritually adopt a baby last month, please contact the: Parish Office, (586) 726-6911, to obtain a prayer card and become part of the Spiritual Adoption Program.

Jenni Stec, (586) 260-1054

ARCHBISHOP OF DETROIT

November 15, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Since arriving in Detroit this past March, I have had the great joy of meeting many of you at parish celebrations, diocesan gatherings, Mass, and other liturgies. In every encounter, I have seen something truly beautiful. I have witnessed your deep love for Christ, your local parish, and our Archdiocese. I also have witnessed your intense desire to see the Church of Detroit flourish for generations to come.

Along with our many blessings, I have also heard the candid expression of your concerns and your understanding of the challenges we face now and into the future. Please know that I hear you and that I see these challenges, too. Many of our churches were built during a time of tremendous growth, when more than 1.5 million Catholics called this Archdiocese home. Today, our Catholic census is closer to 900,000, with a smaller number regularly attending Mass. We have been struggling to maintain buildings, ministries, and structures that were designed for a much larger Church. The situation that unfolded in the last 50 years has left us stretched—sometimes stretched too thinly to serve as well as we want. Moreover, as we struggle to care for buildings and parish structures where there are very few people, we are also seeking to ensure the presence of the Church as we follow the Catholic population in those areas where the Church is growing.

While I believe that our commitment to Christ and his Church means that we must face these challenges, I do not believe that this moment in time need be marked primarily by anxiety or despair. Rather, I believe the situation we are facing is one that holds real and blessed opportunities. I believe with all my heart that God is inviting us to reimagine parish life, priestly ministry, and our mission. I believe God is asking us to face our future with creativity and deeper faith and trust that if we ask Him, then He will show us the way toward building something vibrant, sustainable, and enduring into the future.

This is why I am inviting every Catholic in our Archdiocese to join me in a serious two-year process of Archdiocesan restructuring. It will be a journey of discernment that I believe we can accomplish only together—a time for us to chart the best path forward for each of our parish communities and regions. In such an endeavor, every voice matters, just as every prayer matters. The end result will affect each parish and community of our Archdiocese, so each of you has a part to play in shaping the future of our Church.

It is important to be honest about what this restructuring may bring. We know that we cannot maintain the same number of parish buildings that we have today. Some parish communities may see changes in how or where they gather, while others may be called to see church buildings closed—structures that have been dear to their hearts for generations. But just as there will be mourning over losses or changes in parish life, there likewise will be new blessings with enhanced locations, renewed communities, and the ability to redirect our efforts toward sharing the Gospel and making disciples. I believe that as we work to right-size the Archdiocese and reallocate our personnel and financial resources, the footprint of the Church's presence—her mission, her faith, and her people—will remain.

Our work will be guided primarily by three key pillars:

- Vibrant parishes: We want every parish to be a living heartbeat of faith, where people encounter Christ, grow in discipleship, and build real community.
- Flourishing priests: Our priests are at the heart of parish life. They must be supported and free to focus on what they do best: preaching the Gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, and caring for the faithful.
- Mission ready: By realigning our clergy and financial resources wisely, we will bring the joy of Christ to the next generation with energy and purpose. We will hand the next generation a Church that is vibrant, thriving, and alive in every way.

Next spring, each parish will host two listening sessions where you will have a chance to share your insights, hopes, and dreams for the future of your local parish and the Archdiocese. In the meantime, I ask for your prayers. Special prayer cards will be made available for this purpose at each parish. You can also access the prayer at restructuring.aod.org, along with other resources related to this effort.

Additionally, every step of the restructuring will be covered in Detroit Catholic, the Archdiocese's free online news source. The best way to be kept up to date with how our restructuring unfolds is to sign up to get Detroit Catholic delivered to your email inbox either daily or weekly at detroitcatholic.com/subscribe.

Brothers and sisters, thank you for your generosity of time, prayer, talent, and faith. Together, and with God's grace, we will fashion a Church in this Archdiocese that is vibrant, flourishing, and fully alive in the mission of the Gospel.

May God bless you abundantly.
